BIG AIR BOAT

"Santa Maria," Aeromarine Plane de Luxe, Brings Ten to Capital From Miami.

A giant aeromarine flying boat, "Santa Maria," one of the most luxuriously fitted aircraft in this country, which left Miami, Fla., two days ago with ten passengers aboard, is due to arrive in Washington early this afternoon.

LIES OVER NIGHT IN NORFOLK. The big plane, which has been in the passenger and airmail transport business between Key West and Havana since last fall, lay over in Norfolk last night and was to begin the last leg of its flight to Washington

While in this city it will stop at the Anacostia naval air station, where it will be inspected by naval a tation officials.

Among the passengers making the flight are Police Commissioner James E. Inches, of Detroit; W. E. Metsger, president of the Detroit Athletic Club and Robert Brown, Myron Neal, and John Allen, of Detroit.

The hydroplane, of the F5L type, is driven by two 400-horsepower Liberty SALOON AND DINING ROOM. The interior is divided into a saloon, dining room, pilot compartment and storage space.

The saloon and dining room are anelled with mahogany and all fitings and trimming are of silver. Electric dome lights are set into the ceilings. Running hot and cold water is among the conveniences. Hot meals are served aboard during the Harding Accepts Honorary Office in Organization to Promote Unadultreated Patriotism.

President Harding today accepted the honorary presidency of the Na-tional United Americans, Inc., an organization "to bring together all self-respecting, law-abiding and Godfearing Americans of whatever po-litical predelictions or religious faith, ich and poor silks, to understand and to promote the great ideals of country becomes a land of one tongue,

Dr. Charles T. Baylis, of Brooklyn, and R. R. Fox, of New York, presented the objects of the organization to President Harding and asked that he active as honorary president, the acserve as honorary president, the active president being Charles M. Schwab. The names of more than 100 prominent Americans were given to prominent Americans were given to promine the movement, which the school of the tion of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Inde-

The three main objects as set forth in a memorandum left with the Presi-First-To promote the study, discustution of the United States. Second-To promote the study and understanding of the political, ecothe United States and safeguard the Third-To inspire a more thorough understanding of the history of the United States freed from bias, prejudice and un-American propaganda. It will be the purpose of the organization to co-operate with existing organizations in all parts of the country in the promotion of unadulterated

Rainbows to Honor Reece.

Congressman Carroll Reece, of Tennessee, will be the guest of honor a a meeting Monday night of the District of Columbia Chapter of the Rainbow Division Veterans. Congressman Reece served as a first lieutenant in the Rainbow Division. The meeting be held at the post's "dugout." 1104 E street northwest.

Sargent Heads Congregation. dore F. Sargent was re-elected president of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, at a meeting Monday night. Other officers elected were C. M. Ballard, clerk; C. L. Du Bois, Hugh Wallis, W. H. Fletcher and W. H. K. De Pue, trus-

Meeting—Geological Society of Washington, Cosmos Club, 8 p. m.

Moving Pictures—Benefit of Junior High School, Crandall's Theater, earth atreet and Columbia road northwest, 2 and 4 p. m.

Operetta—"Priscilia," students of Dunbar High Schoo, 2 p. m.

Meeting—Heien Keller Guild, 3429 Holmead place, 2 p. m.

Meeting—Bryan-Buchanan Parent-Teacher Association, Bryan School, 7:30 p. m.

Meeting—Dr. Charles A. Barbour, First Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets northwest, 4:45 and 8 p. m. Address—Mrs. Hester A. Reisinger, social group of Y. W. C. A., 1232 F street morthwest, 7:30 p. m. Annual Meeting—All Souls' Church, Hadleigh Apartment Hotel, 8 p. m. Meeting—District Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Y. M. C. A., 1816 Twelfth street northwest, 8 p. m. Dance—Y. M. H. A., Eleventh street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, 9 p. m. Meeting—Anthony League, 2007 Columbia road, 3 p. m. Meeting—Arthony League, 2007 Columbia road, 3 p. m. Lecture—"Art and the Nation," Miss Lella Meehlin, Women's City Club, 8 p. m. Lecture—"Art and the Nation," Miss Lella Meehlin, Women's City Club, 8 p. m. Meeting—Connecticut Avenue Citizens' Association, Parish hall, of All Souls' Church, 8 p. m. Meeting—Columbia Park, White House Heights and Huntsville Citizens Association, Barnacle store, 8 p. m. Casey Dance—Knights of Ceigmbus Hall, 606 E street northwest, 9 p. m.

Steals $96,000; Gets Year's RUM MUST GO, D. C. DIVORCEE Vacation in Washington

- Bu KIRK MILLER-When Europe reads Mr. Harding's. While inhaling the acoustics of Washington, D. C., Francis. Eulogy of the League of Nations,

Be able to hear a piano drop. "Over there."

As an embalmer and funeral

President doesn't believe in wasting many words on a corpse. Judge Landis slips a mere infant sentence of one year in Wash-

For having separated an Illinois bank from a paltry $96,000

It's gettin' so a kid cant have Any more. The Pisk of snatching a lady's pocketbook is entirely too great. When picking up $96,000

In the beautiful National Capital. Landis ain't a judge; he's Santa

Twelve months' of languishing in the landscape gardening of the national training school. For the simple appropriation of nearly $100,000 is a pretty tough chore for even an adult of nineteen But when a toy of nineteen snitches a little pin money and gets a free tour of Washington thrown

Then you can't blame the dirty-faced little rascals for pouring over Diamond Dick, Nick Carter, Memoirs of Bloodfield and other

J. Carey, of Ottawa, Ill., will not be cheated out of a single thrill.

bership in the District of Columbia. Just because he is a transient is no reason why he can't be issued a

That goes with a resident mem-

265-day visitor's card and. Reap all the terrors of riding on the Brookland cars and trying. To get a number on one of those

His course in the national training school for yapps will include a ride on two of the bumplest stretches of cobblestones within the boundaries of Alexandria's biggest suburb.

If he isn't rattled loose from his conscience by the time he has emerged from the ordeal; he will be conveyed over the Washington-Great Falls turnpike.

Francis will go to the Zoo and see the big, new cage which has been constructed with all modern Exhibit of a new species of wild and heartless.

Landlords. Captured in the jun-

And if Francis. Is a good boy during his year's matriculation. He may get three months addi-

Sentence for neat behavior.

Her 'Engagement' Big Surprise to Actress

Receiving a daily letter from Arthur Jackson, Phila-UNITED AMERICANS Receiving a daily letter from Arthur Jackson, Philadelphia society man, has done much to cheer Irene Williams as she lies critically ill in her suite at the Washington Hotel, but the announcement today-by Mr. Jackson-of their engagement proved more or less of a shock.

"Erminie," which played at the Na-tional Theater two weeks ago. She "It has always been my desired." was unable to accompany the show sociate marriage engagements with when it left for New York, and has the theater. When I am ready to since been confined to her bed in her have my engagement announced, hotel suite. She was taken ill in the shall not be a member of a musica third act, after bravely struggling show," added the musical star.

Miss Williams said to a Times re- on the stage. She has been engaged porter today: "I am much surprised in concert work for the past few to hear of the engagement of Mr. years. Jackson to me. I can hardly believe

Miss Williams has had two seasons

If her condition does not improve, that he has made the announcement. Miss Williams, who is under the care I am quite cetarin he would not do so of a nurse, will go to a hospital. In

200 PENWOMEN IN MAIL FRAUDS

Phoney Magazines as Lure. Arrest 2 Others in West.

Charged with using the mails to defraud by soliciting subscriptions and advertising for publications cock and Frank H. Hitchcock of this city are under arrest here today delegates. This afternoon a recepand it will embrace the foreign work awaiting arraignment in the District tion will be given to the women writ-Supreme Court.

Their arrest followed the taking the men in jail here, and his wife, Amy V. Hitchcock, who are also held on charges of using the mail to defraud.

Postoffice officials say that the activities of the persons now under ar-rest have extended to New York, Balimore, Chicago and Philadelphia. The four Hitchcocks are said to have operated the Woman's National Magazine and Publishers' Service Bureau, both of Washington; the Salisbury Publishing Company and American Story Magazine of Washington and Baltimore; the National Music Company of Washington; the Feature Magazine of Chicago; and the Argus Magazine of Philadelphia and Wash-

Meeting—La Kabea Esperanto Klubo, homson School, Twelfth and L streets

Thomson School, Twelfth and L streets northwest, 8 p. m.

TOMORROW.

Meeting—Abraham Lincoin Council, American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, 1731 I street northwest, 8 p. m.

Concert—Paulist Christers, Catholic University gymnasium, 8 p. m.

Minstrel Show—Students of Western High School, in school auditorium, Thirty-fifth and R streets northwest, 8 p. m.

Art Exhibition—Corcoran Gallery of

Address Congresswoman Alice M. Rob-pertson of Oklahoms, 1814 N street oorthwest, 9 p. m. Public Exhibition—Capital Camera Club, Public Exhibition—Capital Camera Club, 638 I street northwest, 8 p. m.

Dance—XTC club, 2400 Sixteenth street northwest, 9 p. m.
Meeting—California State Society.
Thomson School, Tweith and L streets northwest, 8 p. m.
Meeting—Chemical Society of Washington, Cosmos Club, 8 p. m.
Illustrated lecture—"Hopi Indians of Arizona," Will C. Barnes, Women's City Club, 8 p. m.
Meeting—Kit Carson Post, No. 2, G. A. R., 1412 Pennsylvania avenue, northwest, 8 p. m.

R., 1412 Pennsylvania avenue, northwest. 8 p. m.

Smoker—Faculty Club of George Washington University, 719 Twenty-first street northwest, 8:30 p. m.

Meeting—St. Mark's Men's Club, Third and A streets southeast, 8 p. m.

Meeting—Washington Safety First Association, Thomson School, Twelfth and L streets northwest, 8 p. m.

Conference—People's Reconstruction League, Lafayette Hotel, 19 a. m.

What's Doing; Where; When

Hitchcocks Accused of Using Registration of Delegates Takes Up First Day of Program.

Two hundred delegates are in Washington to attend the convention of the League of American Penwomen, which opened today at 11 o'clock at national which did not exist, Albert E. Hitch- headquarters, 1722 H street northwest. The program for the entire day was taken up with the registration of ers at the ongressional Club, from 4 the lighthouses in this country. to 7 o'clock.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock into custody in Los Anggeles, Calif., the Book Fair will open at the New of Horace D. Hitchcock, brother of Willard Hotel and will occupy the permit his name to be used as patron center of activities until evening. The convention will then men and women will serve on the resume its sessions in the ballroom committee, whose work will of the New Willard, holding a business session there Saturday morning at 10:30.

There will be three sessions Saturday, the second in the afternoon at 1:30 and the closing session in the evening at 8:30. An interesting program for Saturday night has een arranged. Among those 'o speak are Mrs. Henry Wilder Keyes, Mrs. William Atherton DuPuy, president of the league; Mrs. Dr. Winifred Stoner, mother of the child prodigy, eighteenyear-old Winifred Stoner, who has startled the literary world with her contributions to magazines anl i-c-

HARDING AGREES TO AID KILPATRICK'S RELEASE

President Harding today promised to use his efforts to secure the release of Capt. Emmett Kilpatrick, American Red Cross worker, whose home is in Alabama, and who is now held a prisoner by the Bolshevik forces in Russia.

Congressman Steagall of Alabama headed a delegation which called on the President today and urged that this Government take immediate action to secure the release of Captain many residents of Montgomery coun-Kilpatrick, who is reported to be under a twenty years' prison sentence. The President promised to take the prisonment. matter up immediately with the Stace Department and to see that everything possible is done to secure Kilpatrick's release.

FINE

were every one of my snapshots. I always take my films to GROVE'S, 1210 G, to have them developed and printed. (Signed)

Amateur Photographer.

Commissioner Opens War on Mrs. Margaret Cook Mysterious-Big Bootleggers-Police Make · Four Arrests.

Bootlegging Washington robably cannot be stamped out altogether, but it will be cut down to such a small basis that a person who now obtains a drink whenever he wants it will have a hard time quenchinig his thirst for whiskey in the future. is the ultimatum of Commissioner BODY FOUND UNDER STAIRS. Oyster, who has under his immediate jurisdiction the police department of Washington. GET THE BIG FELLOWS. Commissioner Oyster has issued or ders to the police department that illicit whiskey sellers must be driven from Washington, and no effort must be spared in running them down. As a result the police are showing marked activity in arresting bootleggers for the past week.

"Get the big fellows," was Commissioner Oyster's order to the police de partment. In the past, it is said, the police have paid too much attention to the little solicitors, who, as soon as they were arrested, were replaced by the wholesale bootleggers with others. Commissioner Oyster is of the opinion out of business it will make it un-Washington.

Last night the police of the Fourti precinct, headed by Lieut. Conlon and two revenue agents, raided five establishments and arrested four persons. Bonds to the amount of $500 were required of P. J. Lynagh, 523 Seventh street southwest; Charles Cutts. Seventh and F streets southenth street southwest. Lowen was also charged with permitting gambling on the premises and for this he put up $100 additional bond.

The police also arrested Eliza Mack 17 Four-and-a-half street on a charge illegally having two quarts of whiskey in her possession.

'Lighthouse" Pupils to Present Gifts at White House as Big Money Drive Starts. President and Mrs. Harding will re-eive Miss Winifred Holt, "The Lady of the Lighthouse," and two blind girls at the White House tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, when the girls will present the gifts which they have designed and made for the President and his wife. These girls, Jennie Williams andd Veronica E. Maziska are pupils and workers at the Lighthouse of the New York Association for the Blind, and they have been trained in sewing and weaving so that they are able to be self-supporting.

Miss Holt's visit to Washington mraks the inauguration of a $2,000,000 campaign for the relief of the blind ed, men, women and children of America and France and Italy. Fif-teen years ago Miss Holt organied the New York Association for the Blind, and it has become her life work. She has spen the greater part of the last six years abroad, carrying on work of the committee for men blinded in battle, in France, and the American committee for helping the Italian blind, in Italy. Hereafter this work will be continued by the committee for lighthouses for the blind, formed Miss Holt, by letter, that he would gladly indorse her work and

Last week President Harding in Friday of the committee. Many eminent

Guy Vernon Thompson Awaits Death Penalty for Dynamiting Home. Unless Governor Ritchie commutes is sentence to life imprisonment in the Maryland penitentiary, Guy Vernon (Villa) Thompson, will be hanged in the jail yard at Rockville morngomery county, early Friday morn-ing. The execution will be in charge of Sheriff George E. Nicholson Thompson will pay the penalty of death, after conviction as the slayer of James Bolton and two children of Germantown, Montgomery county, several months ago, when he is alleged to have dynamited Bolton's home. Governor Ritchie has stated that he would not interfere with the execution, but ty have petitioned him to commute Thompson's death sentence to life im-

THE McPHERSON CAFETERIA

916 Fifteenth Street Breakfast and Luncheon a' la Carte

SPECIALIZING IN DINNERS

55 Cents and 75 Cents

5 o'Clock until 7 o'Clock

SOUPS, SALADS, DESERTS,
HOT BREADS

HOMEMADE PASTRIES
Menus Carefully Selected
Meals Carefully Prepared

ly Killed in Cleveland-Daughters Expect Body Today.

The body of Mrs. Margaret Cook forty-seven years old, formerly of this city, who was found mysterious-y murdered in Cleveland early yes-terday, is expected to reach Wash-ington late today or tomorrow. Mrs. Margaret Panholzer, a daughter, lives at 1033 Fifth street northeast

Her head crushed; the body of Mrs. Cook was found jammed under stairway at East Thirtieth street and Chester avenue, in the heart of Cleveland's downtown district. She was last seen alive at a dance in sonic Hall at 11:45 p. m. Monday. News of her mother's death reache Mrs. Panholzer last night, coming from a sister of the dead woman. Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, of the Oliver apart ments, Second and C streets north east, another sister, also was notified late last night.

Neither the daughter nor the sister ould shed any light on the murder Both declared Mrs. Cook had neve spoken or written of any trouble. SEEMED IN GOOD SPIRITS.

"Why, I just received a letter from mother yesterday," said Mrs. Panhelzer, "and she seemed in the bes of spirits. I was just about to wrate profitable for the whiskey runners to and ask her to come and live with bring a consignment of liquors to us. I can't imagine who would want Cleveland police are watching th home of a suspect in the East end and an arrest is momentarily expected. They have advanced no probable motive for the crime.

Mrs. Cook attended a dance in the Masonic Hall and started for home, alone, a little before midnight. From vest; and James T. Lowen, 317 Sev- that hour until her body was taken from its hiding place no trace of her movements has been found. BODY CARRIED IN AUTO.

Evidence so far unearthed disclosed that the body evidently had been taken in an auto to the spot where it was found, and then carried across the sidewalk to its resting place un der the stairs. Police say that if Mrs. Cook had been the victim of a traffic accident, the driver of the car probably would have reported the fatality to the ponce or taken the body to a hospital. identity was made through a receipt found in a purse lying near the body. Mrs. Cook had been living in Cleveand about a year, employed as a She was divorced, and her former husband is a Government

Non-Partisan Union of Farm and Labor Organization Will Confer Here.

The People's Reconstruction League, a non-partisan union of farm and veyed in her prize-winning thesis. ference Thursday and Friday at the be seen from her surname, and con-Lafayette Hotel, Sixteenth and I sequently has elected to enter the streets northwest. The league claims university so dear to the hearts of that it has a program, if carried out Scotsmen. by the Government, that will save the ffices, trade, and transportation $6,000,000,000 a year. Herbert F. Baker, president of the Swarthmore.

eague, will preside over the confer ence, and also explain the purpose of the organization. The program of the league will be explained by William H. Johnson, president of the International Association of Machinists. Others who will make addresses in clude George P. Hampton, managing director of the Farmers' National Council: R. W. H. Stone, president of the North Carolina Farmers' Union; Jackson H. Ralston, Western Starr. James P. Noonan, president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; the Rev. Dr. John A. Ryan, professor of industrial ethics at Catholic University; Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, and Grant H. Slocum, president of the Naional Gleaner Federation.

ALL SOULS' CHURCH WILL NAME TRUSTEES TONIGHT

The annual meeting of Assouls' Church will be held at the Hadleigh Hotel this evening, at which time the different organizations will submit their reports, and vacancies on the board of trustees will be filled. The Women's Alliance and the Laynen's League will be hosts.

Births Deaths Marriages

Will be Found Every Day Page Four

THE WASHINGTON TIMES

NEW officers of the White House Correspondents' Association. Left to right: James Russell Young, Evening Star, vice president; Frank R. Lamb, The Washington Times, president, and Byron Price, Associated Press, secretary and treasurer. They are in charge of the operations of the army of newspapermen who "cover" the White House.

Don't Climb Monument If Your Heart's Leaky

If you want to go to the top of the Washington Monument within the next ten days, you'll have to walk and might drop dead.

Who says so? Dr. E. T. Stephen-Of course, it all depends on the conlition of your heart. Maybe you have leaky heart, and don't know it. If your heart is degenerated, don't attempt to make the walk. You know the shaft for ten days. the shaft is 555 feet from terra firma.

MIGHT BECOME DIZZY.

And, in the event you should manage to reach the top, after plodding ist, of 208 Maryland avenue northeast. thing, the elevator will not bring you Because it is not running.

A half-dozen mechanics today are working on it. They say it will not MAY TAKE A CHANCE.

But if you want to get your name in the obituary columns of the newspapers, you can take the chance of up the hundreds of steps, you might walking up the steps of the shaft any become dizzy after looking down and day between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., and over the National Capital. You might between 1 and 4 o'clock next Sunday.

Makes 95 in Studies; Awarded Scholarship

Because of her excellence in study Miss Aline Woodrow, of 4410 Illinois avenue, will be enabled to matriculate for one year at the University of Glasgow, Scotland, and make an extensive and colored races." tour of Italy.

Miss Woodrow, who is the daughter ter of J. R. Woodrow, head of the local offices of the Northwestern Milling Company, finishes her course at Swarthmore College this year, where she has attained the brilliant record of averaging 95 per cent for her entire work. This achievement carries the honor of Phi Beta Kappa Miss Woodrow's thesis on "Italy's Contribution to Modern Culture." achieved such a high degree of excellence that she has been awarded the Lucretia Mott fellowship, which carries with it the perogative on one year's study at any European university, and travel in the country whose field she so brilliantly surscholarship was publicly The people on farms, in factories, mines, awarded her recently at the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the at 37 feet, is equipped with two Anzan: Somerville Literary Society and Bstreets northwest, called at of the stated that the President told her that he would support the undertaking in every possible way.

HARDING TO SUPPORT

Army Men Plan Effort to Transfer Objects From Ground to Moving Aircraft.

Attempts to transfer objects from the ground to an airplane flying overhead will be made tomorrow at Bolling Field. A new type of plane, designed to carry four passengers, and having a will speak on animals. The event is wing of variable camber permitting part of the program of "Be kind to a very low speed, which has just been assembled at the field, will be used.

The plane, with a wing spread of motors, giving a speed of 90 to 100 miles an hour. The machine takes off with a run of only eight seconds but has a low landing speed. It is known as the "Huff-Daland," after PLANS FOR MEMORIAL the names of the manufacturers. A number of preliminary test Mrs. Henry Dimock, president of flights were made at the field yesterthe Washington Memorial Association, day, following assembly of the plane which has in view the erection of a T. H. Huff, of the Massachusetts large memorial bulding at Seventh Institute of Technology, is in charge of the experiments. C. M. Devitalis is

> "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel" is from Bosweli's "Life of Samuel Johnson.

New D. C. Committee May Begin Work of Consolidation at Meeting Monday.

The first meeting of the new District of Columbia committee of the Senate probably will be held next Monday. It will start with the largest girst of work which has ever confronted a District Commit-

MERGER FIRST CONSIDERATION. Senator Ball, chairman of the committee, believes that its first constructive step will be in the directing of paving the way to a merger of the two traction companies in

As a preliminary step to this consolidation, the France-Gould measure, providing for the merger of the Washington Railway and Electric Company and the Potomac Electric Power Company, will be re-Introduc-ed, and will be followed by whatever additional merger legislation the District Commissioners recommend after their conferences with the traction

The Senate hopper is already filled with the "hardy annuals" of traditional District bills. Senators Cap-per of Kansas and Poindexter, of Washington, yesterday vied with each other in introducing bills providing for the election of delegates from the District of Columbia to the House. Senator Jones reintro-duced his merger and fifty-fifty tax bills. The latter bill, a substitute for the 60-40 fiscal plan now in vogue, probably will not be taken up for consideration by the District emmittee until the House and Senate conferees on the District taxation program have completed their work "GUN TOTING" TO BE A CRIME.

The measures recommended to Congress by the District Commissioners were introduced by Senator Ball These include bills making a criminal offense of "gun toting" and licensing the business of selling firearms; an amendment to the loan shark act of 1915 to prevent pawnbrokers from month; and the measure enlarging the jurisdiction of the Municipal Courts and regulating appeals from their jurisdiction. Senator Harrison sent in a measure to require the traction companies to "provide equal but sep-arate accommodations for the white Senator King of Utah sponsors a measure to construct a Lincoln and Lee memorial bridge across the Potomac. Other District bills will be reintroduced today, it is expected.

ON BIRDS AND ANIMALS Free Entertainment for Children

PUPILS TO HEAR TALKS

By Humane Society.

A free entertainment for school children, including moving pictures music and a chalk talk on birds and animals will be given at the Knickerbocker Theater tomorrow afternoor at 3:30 o'clock by the Humane Education Society.

Prof. Henry Oldys will describe the habits of birds, while Harry Bradford animals week Officers of the society are: James

P. Briggs, president; Mrs. Wallace Neff. vice president; Miss Lillian Venable, treasurer; Mrs. Rowena Halstead is chairman of the membership ommittee.

CIRCULATING LIBRARY Fiction and Non-Fiction

PEARLMAN'S BOOK

933 G St. N. W. Open Evenings

A remarkable little booklet -ready for distribution

Call, write or send for your copy today

FEDERAL NATIONAL BANK

Southeast Corner Fourteenth and G Streets Northwest